

Haitian Relief Fund

Alfred, ME. Solicitations have been launched in the province, at Walsh and at local masses to collect funds to come to the help of our Haitian Brothers.

Brother Jerome Lessard is seeking: "Clarion readers who wish to assist our Haitian Brothers in the reconstruction of their school and residences, knowing that these donations will go directly to this undertaking, are invited to forward their check payable to BROTHERS OF CHRISTIAN INSTRUCTION – with Haitian Relief Fund written in the bottom left hand memo line. A Federal Tax deductible form is available when requested. These donations should be mailed to the Brothers Provincial Administration P.O. Box 159, Alfred, ME 04002"

At Walsh University, Brother Marcel Sylvestre, Mission Outreach Coordinator, is also spearheading a campus-wide effort to raise funds for the Haitian Brothers. "There are so many good agencies there," Br. Sylvestre said, "We want to focus on our brothers and the people we serve." So far Walsh has raised $15,000. Br Sylvestre said his goal is $25,000.

For donors in the Ohio area to benefit the Brothers of Christian Instruction, send checks to Walsh University, 2020 E. Maple St, North Canton, OH 44720. Write "Haiti" in the memo.

At our local masses, Brother Theodore Letendre collected $3,900 for the Haiti Relief. The money was sent to the Diocese to be managed by Catholic Relief Services.
